Construction Exceeds $4.5 Million

Ground was broken Saturday for a $2 million Fine Arts Building bringing the total value of construction now in progress on campus to more than $4.5 million dollars.

THE CONTRACT FOR the building, signed October 8 with Scudder and Company of Union City, calls for an initial expenditure of $1,737,000, according to Dr. Jack Mays, vice chancellor for development. When completed and furnished, the facility will cost more than $2 million.

Site for the two-story, air conditioned building is on the main campus near the intersection of Highway 22 and Mt. Pelia Road, west of the Agriculture-Biology and north of the Engineering-Physical Sciences buildings.

THE NEW STRUCTURE will contain 48,000 square feet of floor space and will serve music, drama and art. One of the main features of the building is a theatre with a seating capacity of 500.

Nearing completion and already accommodating some classes is the Humanities Building constructed at a cost of slightly more than $1.2 million. This four-story, 74,000 square foot air conditioned building contains 33 classrooms; eight office suites, each containing separate office spaces for 10 instructors and one receptionist; a total of 88 units; and a faculty lounge.

THE HUMANITIES BUILDING will furnish quarters for the Offices of the Dean of Instruction and the Dean of Students, the departments of English, History, Political Science, Social Science, Mathematics, Foreign Languages, and quarters for the college newspaper.

Humanities is located the main campus on the south perimeter of the quadrangle, opposite the Administration Building.

ALSO IN PROGRESS and now scheduled for completion by winter quarter is a 320-unit women's residence hall. The design of this facility represents a new concept of dormitory architecture on campus. Rooms are arranged in suites which have been constructed on the four sides of an atrium.

Each suite accommodates eight residents and is adaptable to single and double room occupancy. Located on the ground level are a larger recreation room with kitchen, a laundry room and a sauna bath.

ARRANGEMENT OF THE residence hall rooms in adjoining suites eliminates center hallways and makes for more privacy and quiet for occupants. The new, modern facility is located east of Clement Hall, and along with other dormitories is in close proximity to the University Center, the library and classroom buildings.

A fourth facility in the process of construction on campus is the Maintenance

Center. Cost of Phase I is $100,000. Additions will be made in the near future. At present the new center consists of two steel span buildings erected on concrete foundations.

TO BE LOCATED in the new maintenance units will be the Office of the Director of Physical Plant and of the director of the Safety and Security Division; a dispatcher's office which will serve functions related to both security and physical plant; paint, carpentry, electrical, plumbing and machine shops and supply rooms. The center is located on North campus, Moody Avenue, near Westview Terrace and the National Guard Armory.

Other buildings and additions included in the high priority listing for development during 1969-73 by the U-T Board of Trustees in its meeting in June are an education-home economics building, and additions to the Administration, Engineering-Physical Sciences and Physical Education buildings.

PLANS ARE ALSO BEING developed for a 92-unit married student-faculty housing complex expected to begin construction this fall and completed in the fall of 1969.

A 264-unit residence hall for men has high priority in the building program and is expected to be ready for occupancy in 1970.

Nixon Has It In Bumper Poll

If bumper stickers are reliable indications of support, Richard Nixon will receive the overwhelming endorsement of the faculty in November.

Of a total 104 faculty cars surveyed on campus yesterday, only 12 exhibited stickers. Twelve of the stickers endorsed Nixon, two continued to favor Eugene McCarthy, and George Wallace and Hubert Humphrey lagged behind with only one supporter each.

Few people find opportunities. Opportunities must be made.

Homecoming Events Scheduled Next Week

Homecoming '68 has been set for October 25-26, according to David B. Small, director of alumni affairs.

SPECIAL GUESTS for the occasion will be Dr. Andrew D. Holt, president of The University of Tennessee; Bill Fortune of Knoxville, president of the U-T General Alumni Association, and members of the classes of '28, '33, '38, '43, '48, '53 and '58.

Kick-off time for the football game between the Vols and the Statesmen of Delta State from Cleveland, Miss. will be 2 p.m. The homecoming queen will be crowned at halftime.

EVENTS SCHEDULED for Friday, October 25, are a dinner given by Chancellor Archie R. Dykes at 7 p.m. honoring the Alumni Board of Directors and their families; a bonfire and pep rally also at 7 p.m., followed by a Student Government dance at the University Center beginning at 8 p.m.

The schedule for Saturday includes registration and breakfast for alumni and friends at the University Center from 8:30 to 9:15 a.m., followed by open house; a parade featuring Homecoming Royalty, the UTM Band and the Grenadiers at 10:30 a.m.; a luncheon at the center for alumni and friends at 11 a.m.; an after-game coffee hour and a dinner dance from 4:30 to 6:30; the homecoming dance from 8:00 p.m. until midnight, followed by breakfast for alumni and students.

Marijuana Film To Be Shown

Phi Epsilon Mu, the physical education majors club, is presenting a film entitled "Marijuana" which will be shown in the University Center Conference Rooms, Thursday, October 17, at 12:15 p.m., 8:00 p.m. and Friday at 12:15 p.m.

THIS FILM IS for high school seniors, college students, and adults. It is 34 minutes in length. With the help of the film's guide, Sonny Bono of Sonny & Cher fame, the film examines reasons some teenagers give for smoking "pot" and rationally exposes these reasons for what they are.

Heavy Voting Close, Run-Offs Set Thursday

One of the following seven coeds will be chosen the '68 Homecoming Queen in a final vote Thursday. They are: May Cheek, Debbie Dawson, Donna Ford, Marcia Hanna, Paula Herron, Nancy Hicks, and Linda Shoe.

In yesterday's election voting was heavy according to some Student Government officials. All freshmen offices were thrown in a run-off situation.

The Engineering Senator race faces a run-off election Thursday between Joe Pittman and Malcolm Perry, Jr.

Senior class officers are: David Shepherd, president; Sue Donnell, vice-president; a run-off Thursday for secretary-treasurer between Lin Dunn and Patsy Gadd; and Jim Sowell was elected Student government representative.

Junior class president is Mike Foster. The other offices involve run-off elections Thursday. For the office of vice president Gala Bissinger and Jerry Snidow are competing; Kay Wilson faces Suzanne Thornhill in the secretary race; and Anita Chadwick and Emily Duscoe are vying for the Student Government office.

'Up With People' Cast Shows Enthusiasm Both On Stage and Off

By Barbara Stockdale

"If any of you are interested in joining "Up With People," please talk to any of the group after the show or to personnel who will be available tomorrow."

SO GOES THE SENTENCE that has set up a chain reaction across the world. Hundreds of young persons join the caravan each year, and there are perhaps as many reasons for joining as there are members in the group.

"When I first heard "Up With People," explained Helen Sundt, a 20-year-old blonde of a Norwegian sister trio which has a special spot in the "Up With People" presentation, "I was very impressed with them. I was working for an airline then, but I joined the group because I believed in what they stood for. I think I will stay with the organization and work with public relations after I finish with the stage company."

"WHAT DO YOU THINK of the group and the idea behind it? Don't you think it is wonderful?" she asked. "Helping to bring understanding to people throughout the world and helping to bring them closer together is the purpose of "Up With People."

"The man who first got the idea knew that was what he wanted to do. But he also knew that he would have to work through the young people and that he couldn't accomplish what he wanted through lectures or seminars, so he decided to get his point across through song."

"I JOINED "Up With People" three days before I ever heard them do a concert," said Maureen O'Donnell, an 18-year-old

Ohioan who serves as head of the news department for Cast B. "I'd been singing with a folk group for two years doing the same type of songs that "Up With People" do, so it was sort of natural for me to want to go with them."

"You sort of get caught up in the enthusiasm of the group when you see them perform. I guess that's what inspires most people to join, but for me it had nothing to do with it. I've been with the group for four months and couldn't quit for anything. Everything is moving all the time. It's rough, but I love it."

"I'LL BE GOING to Los Angeles to work with the newspaper, Tomorrow's American, in about two months, but I'm going to stay with UWP as long as I can. A lot of the kids who were with the group when I joined have left. In fact, it's nearly a whole new cast. I couldn't quit anytime soon, though. There just seems to be part of me in "Up With People."

"Many people join to travel or to get away from home or because they don't realize how much work is involved and think they're just out for a lark," Maureen continued. "They soon (Continued to page eleven)

Federal Snooping Threatens Freedom

'Big Brother' Listens!

Democracy dies when we permit our privilege of privacy to be ripped away. All society is under surveillance. Every citizen is just a specimen on a slide. We are naked to The Big Eye, The Big Ear— The Big Snoop.

There is no place to hide. No sanctuaries are left. Uncle Sam is a perverted Peeping Tom. The federal government has abolished unconstitutionally man's most precious freedom, the right to be left alone. Big Brother has arrived. And Tennessee's Attorney General Phil Canale is trying to bring Big Brother closer to home.

Congress has given state legislatures power to authorize wiretapping. This new Federal authorization is contained in the package commonly known as "Omnibus Crime Control and Safe Streets Act of 1968." A criminal court judge can give authority to prosecuting attorneys to listen to a telephone or wire communication for a limited time if there is reason to believe such eavesdropping will provide evidence about major crimes.

Mr. Canale fails to mention rapes, muggings, sudden street riots, or any of the other street crimes. Memphis Chief of Detectives W. P. Huston said the police "wouldn't listen in on the law abiding citizens." This is a very foolish statement. How will the police know who is guilty or who is innocent unless conversations are tapped?

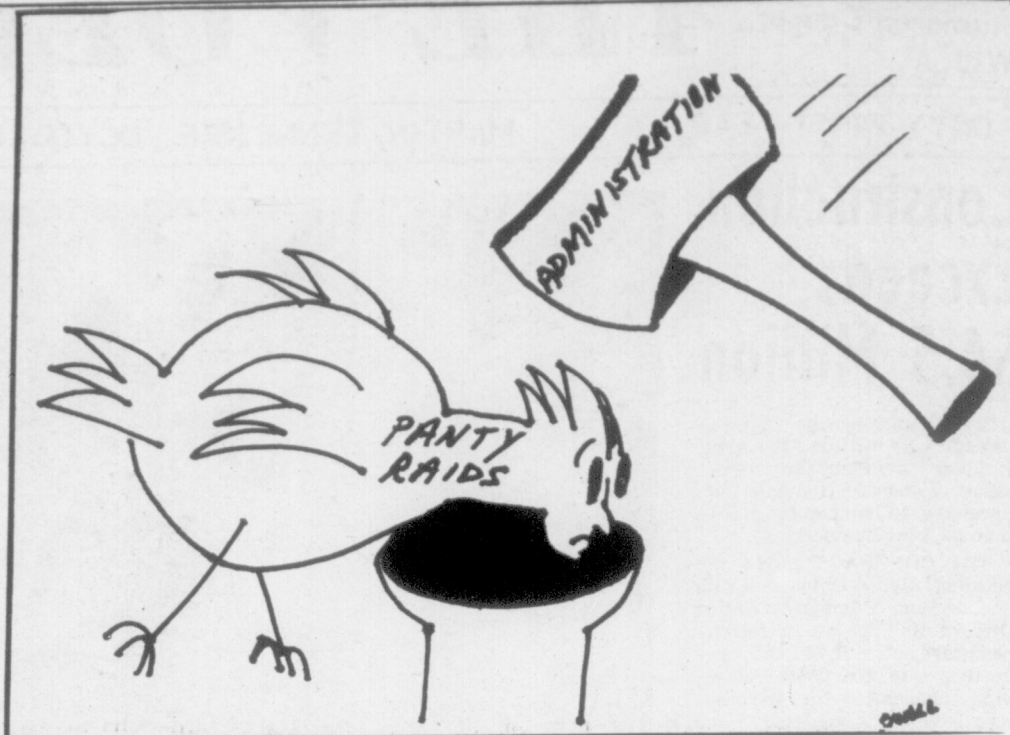

Evidently some Tennessee politicians have placed professional advancement before the American concept of freedom from invasion of privacy. Perhaps they have forgotten the Fourth Amendment to the United States Constitution in their flurry to an enhanced professional status.

Senator Edward V. Long, the Democratic Senator from Missouri, made public his feeling to the McClellan subcommittee on March 23, 1966.

"The net effect of the widespread use of wiretapping and eavesdropping equipment is, unfortunately, to create an atmosphere of fear on the part of our citizenry. Out subcommittee files are full of letters from people who are convinced that their phones are tapped and their apartments bugged. No doubt, many of these complaints are unfounded. But how do we know?"

Business firms tap each other's phones. Coaches have tapped the lines of opposing teams. Husbands and wives tap to trap cheating mates. The Internal Revenue is wiretapping. Even Even Bell Telephone doesn't trust its service! Employees are forbidden to use office phones for important messages.

Wiretapping is becoming rampant in America despite President Johnson's and it will continue clamping on Federal snooping unless interested and concerned citizens write, talk to, or call their elected representatives. Many legislators are afraid of any type of invasion of privacy legislation. Now is the time to make them more aware of their responsibility to the concepts upon which this nation was created. Today, now is the hour of deciding between a police-state for Tennessee or the upholding of freedom of privacy, the right to be left alone.

Parade Of Opinion

In an effort to promote school spirit in conjunction with Homecoming weekend, the editors asked May Cheek, cheerleader captain, to speak out on school support.

Dear Editors:

Our school is growing more every year.

As student enrollment increases each year, it is hard to understand why enthusiasm and spirit don't explode all over campus.

Fans have been doing a great job yelling and cheering this season. We had a good crowd to follow the team to Murray State, and both home games have drawn good crowds.

It seems to me, though, that spirit does not have to begin and end on the football field. Spirit is something each person has to feel and show.

Enthusiasm and eagerness to support your team should last throughout the year. You can't pick it up as you walk in the stadium like you do your program. Show your interest and concern all week for the upcoming weekend game.

The Saturday, October 12 game is over -- we lost -- but November is the time to make plans for our victory over Delta State at our Homecoming game. We have two full weeks to prepare for Homecoming, floats to build, signs to make, a bonfire pep rally to hold, and many other activities.

Talk to your football team and let them know you are behind them all the way. Accept this challenge and make UTM Homecoming 1968 the best in the history of this university.

Yours truly,
May Cheek
Cheerleader

SG Dateline

We would like to thank the many students and faculty who helped house the cast from "Up With People" this last week. This kind of cooperation enabled our campus to have one of the best entertainment acts in the nation on our campus. With this kind of cooperation we feel we can accomplish much in Student Government.

SEVERAL PERSONS have asked what Student Government does with its money thinking that we give the entire $15.00 of the Student Activity fee. We would like for you to see a breakdown of the fee: $8.00, Student Center Operations; $5.00, Athletics; $.50, Violette; $.50, Spirit; $.40, Student Government; $.25, Musical Activities; $.15, Dramatics; $.10, Literary; and $.10, General Expenses.

Student Government will receive about $1,500 this quarter from student activity fees for our office expenses, big name entertainment, and for various other expenses as elections. We also receive money from the University Center for movies, dances, and other activities we sponsor in the University Center.

I WOULD LIKE to thank Barbara Whitaker and Marcia McDonald for allowing Student Government a column in the VIOLETTE.

It is our hope that we can explain programs, seek help, and answer your questions in this column. If you have questions or suggestions that you feel are pertinent, please bring them by the Student Government office in the University Center.

Bad Spelling
Divides Language

Discrepancies in spelling have transformed English into two separate languages, one written and the other spoken, according to the author of a master's thesis at the University of Tennessee.

ELDON H. SMITH, who received the master's degree in English education, contends that these discrepancies have prevented English from becoming a world language. His thesis traces the spelling reform movement in America during this century and views its prospects for the future.

Protest Group Plans Revolution.

SDS Is Red To Core: RD

While the organization known as Students for a Democratic Society represents only a minuscule minority of students, it has managed to play a leading role in the violence, bloodshed and arson that have exploded across college campuses from Columbia to Stanford.

Details of how this small but militant group has managed to disrupt college life are revealed in the October Reader's Digest by Eugene Methvin of the magazine's Washington bureau. Quoting SDS officials and members, he reports that the organization's ultimate goal "is nothing less than the destruction of society itself."

Methvin quotes one speaker at SDS' national convention at East Lansing, Mich., last June: "The ability to manipulate people through violence and mass media has never been greater, the potential for us as radicals never more exciting, than now." FBI director J. Edgar Hoover has said: "They are a new type of subversive, and their danger is great."

SDS's tactics include use of off-campus issues to disrupt campus life, the article points out. An SDS member from Wisconsin put it this way: "We organized dormitory students around rules, and then it was easy to move them on such issues as the university's relation to Chase Manhattan Bank."

The article quotes these among specific SDS proposals for disruption of society: picking public fights with welfare workers; starting trash-can fires and pulling fire alarms in high schools as "forms of protest;" making appointments by the score with university deans and registrars-- to "over-use the bureaucracy;" checking out an inordinate number of books to disrupt libraries and study programs; disrupting draft boards by registering under a false name to "federal agents will spend much time attempting to track down people who do not exist."

While it purports to follow a line of "independent radicalism," Methvin reports SDS betrays growing signs of links to hard-core professional communists. Known communists have sat in on SDS meetings and coached organizers since the organization was founded in 1962; SDS leaders frequently travel to Red capitals; two of three national officers chosen at last June's national convention were self-proclaimed communists.

ISA Increases Membership

By Judy Cloud

Significance of social status on campus is often pondered by many students. They wonder how they will be able to become a functional part of the university and feel they fit into the university's activities.

MOST STUDENTS ARE interested in a social life, but they do not care to affiliate or cannot afford to join some organization. However, these students still desire that sense of belonging and want to participate in school activities.

If you fit the above description, there is an energetic group of students on campus that would like for you to join your efforts with theirs and become an active part. The Independent Student Association (ISA) is a strong organization that has a keen role on campus.

ISA WAS FORMED here in 1964 and since has made several contributions to the university. In 1964, 1966, and 1967, the ISA nominee for Homecoming Queen was in the Homecoming Court. ISA has placed in the Homecoming Float competition numerous times. All-

Sing has been won by ISA the past two years. If it wins again this year, it will be privileged to keep the trophy permanently. In past years and also for this year, ISA has members as Student Government officers.

The officers of ISA are strong leaders and already have several activities underway and still others in the planning stages.

IF YOU WOULD LIKE to work with ISA, you are welcome to come to its next meeting, October 24, and see this organization in action.

ISA is interested in the independent students.

Mike Garrett and Rick Hatler will run again for the office of president; Bill Kennedy and Cheryl Snyder are running for the office of vice-president; Jill Collins will face Cherie Sanders for the office of secretary; Brenda Knight and Dianne Miller are running for treasurer; and Julie Dodd and Arthur Moss will attempt to claim the student government representative.

Three Students Pass CPA Test

Three of the four seniors who took the Certified Public Accountant Exam in May passed a significant number of its parts. Regulations of 50 State Boards of Accountancy stipulate a person passing as many as two of the four parts may retain them.

Examinees passing only one part must take the exam again.

THE PRINCIPAL FUNCTION of a CPA is reviewing the accounting records of a business concern and issuing a report in which he expresses his professional opinion as to the fairness and dependability of the financial statements. His duties include auditing, preparing income tax returns, designing and installing accounting systems, and consulting on a wide variety of financial and business problems.

Two students, Mrs. Sylvia Collier Davis and Alexander Waddell, passed three parts of the examination. John Rossmaler passed two parts. A graduate in business administration and former Bursar at UT Martin, Larry York, passed three parts. A 1967 graduate, Albert Markham, passed all four parts and is practicing in Lake County.

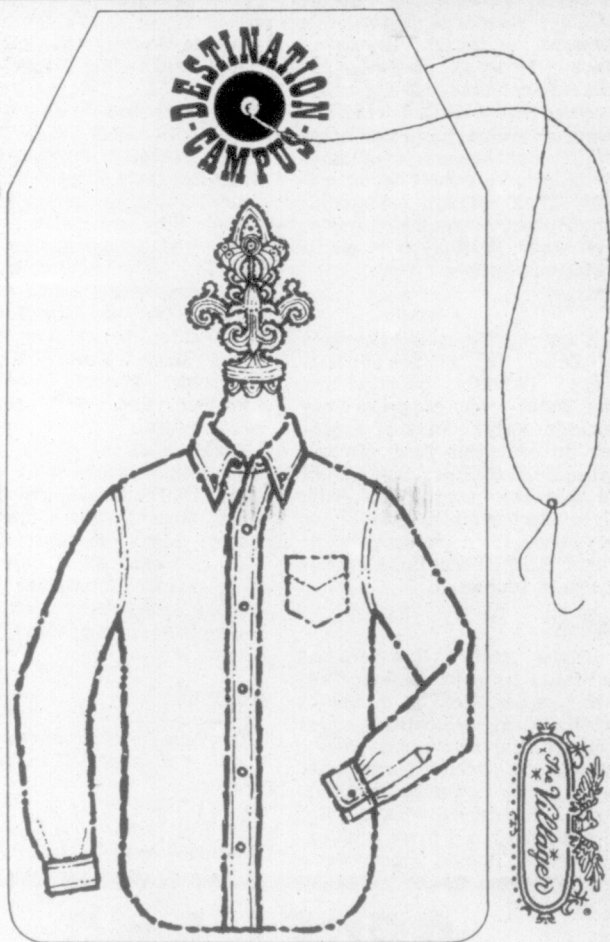

THIS ACHIEVEMENT LAST spring was outstanding in as much as active students have limited time for reviewing. One per cent of the total participants pass four parts and five per cent pass three parts on the first attempt.

The department of business administration here is a member of the AACSB Assembly and the Southern Business Administration Association.

SDS Is Red

While many SDSers are actively anti-Kremlin, they share with the communists a common desire to destroy, to annihilate and to tear down, the article asserts.

Citing SDS's role in the recent upheaval at Columbia University, Methvin declares that firmer action by school authorities in support of the anti-radical "Majority Coalition" would have averted escalating violence that culminated in cancellation of classes at Columbia.

While acknowledging that legitimate grievances by students must receive "far more attention" from officials than heretofore, Methvin says that prompt action by students and administrators is a must to prevent campus-wide clashes in the future.

Sidney Hook, noted New York University philosophy professor, has said that SDS members "threaten to become the true grave diggers of academic freedom in the United States." Only prompt action by school authorities and the overwhelming majority of students can prevent the grave from being dug.

Mitchell To Play Homecoming Dance

The Willie Mitchell Combo with Don Bryant will play for the Homecoming Dance Saturday, October 26 from 8-12 p.m. at the University Center Ballroom.

BEGINNING TODAY, 350 tickets are on sale at the Student Center Information Desk. The tickets, $3 per couple, are available to the first ones to purchase them.

Football players will be admitted free provided they register their name and their date's name at the Information Desk before Wednesday, October 23.

FREE REFRESHMENTS will be served at the dance. Following the student government sponsored dance, the cafeteria will be open for the late breakfast from 12-1.

The "Melody Men" will provide dinner music for this late breakfast as well as for the evening meal before the dance.

Chi Omega, ATO Battle To 7-7 Tie

Chi Omega returned Alpha Tau Omega's challenge Sunday afternoon behind the Fieldhouse with the kickoff of the ChiO-ATO football game.

LYNN DUNN LED the Owls to a near upset over the ATO's. The first three quarters went scoreless as hard tackles and deep pile-ups dominated the play.

The ATO team was the first to score. Mike Burton caught a touchdown pass late in the fourth quarter. Jack Hurley added the extra point.

IN THE CLOSING minute of the game, the ChiO's ran a 60-yard attack for a touchdown and extra point. The final score was ChiO 7, ATO-7.

Alpha Tau Omega has challenged Alpha Omicron Pi, Alpha Delta Pi, and Zeta Tau Alpha to try their luck against the Tau's "fast-walking" team. Everyone is invited to these games if the sororities accept.

A fool and his money have a lot of fun while they are being parted.

The Ghetto: You Can End The Hopelessness.

Empty promises have caused much of the bitterness of the slum dweller. How can we offer real opportunity, realistic hope? Elect Richard Nixon President. Here are some examples of what he wants to do:

1. Use new Federal tax incentives to get private enterprise into the ghetto, and get the people of the ghetto into private enterprise.
2. Foster the "black capitalism" that means pride and progress—black ownership of homes and new businesses.
3. Stop acting as if all the answers are in Washington. Return to the cities a larger, fairer share of the wealth they produce so the cities can better meet their own needs.
4. Develop new Federal and local education programs to provide every child in America an equal chance at the starting line.

Viet Nam: You Can Make Sure We're Not Trapped Again.

Every American wants peace. We must end this war in a way that discourages aggression and prevents future wars. How can you make this peace a lasting peace? Elect Richard Nixon President.

He understands the forces that threaten world peace. He has the experience to bring about an era of negotiation. He will reform the free world alliances now in disarray and redirect our strategy on new, global terms.

He is a recognized world leader who knows how to practice preventive diplomacy. He will end this war and avoid future wars by dealing with the adversary the only way they respect—through strength, collective security, and patience.

The Draft: You Can Change To A Volunteer Army.

The draft is unfair to young men and a bad way to build our armed forces. Elect Richard Nixon President. Here's what he would do:

After Viet Nam, eliminate Selective Service completely. Change to an all-volunteer armed force, with pay scales making it an attractive career. Professional, highly trained armed forces are needed for modern defense, and "elective service" would remove much uncertainty from the lives of young Americans.

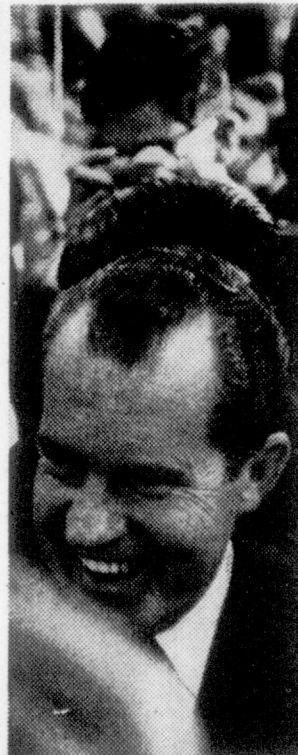

Jobs and the Jobless: You Can Open New Opportunities.

Obsolete welfare programs have undermined the dignity of millions of Americans and actually penalized some men for going to work. How do we break the vicious cycle of welfare dependency? Elect Richard Nixon President.

He believes we need fewer people on welfare rolls and more people on payrolls. "Jobs are the issue," he says. "If you don't have jobs, you don't have anything and you don't have human dignity."

Nixon has proposed tax incentives to stimulate business to provide jobs and job training to the unemployed, a national company job bank to match the unemployed with unfilled jobs and a mobilization of private enterprise to make new opportunities for the unemployed.

THIS TIME, NIXON.

HE HAS THE GALL TO YELL, "GO VOLS!"— DO YOU?— This student believes in school spirit, his school spirit, UTM.

That's right. You, too, can be a pilot.

Join the United States Air Force and qualify for pilot training. Become a leader with executive responsibility.

Well, what else? A pilot is the officer in charge of a million dollars worth of high flying, sophisticated supersonic equipment, isn't he?

Yes, and you'll wear a snappy blue officer's uniform, enjoy officer's pay and privileges. You'll probably travel to exotic foreign lands, and have a secure future in the biggest scientific and research organization. World's biggest.

You'll be where all the exciting Space Age breakthroughs are. Where it's happening. Now. Today. Right now. This minute. The Air Force is the "now" place to be.

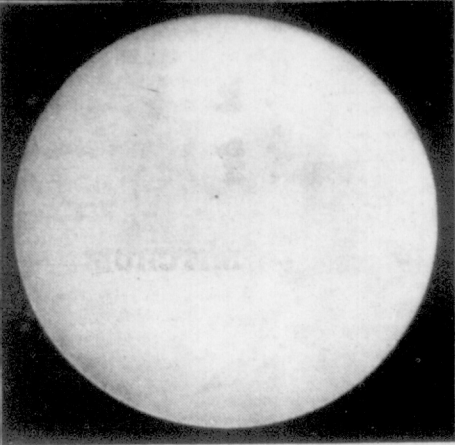

If you yearn to fly and don't try the Aerospace Team, you'll miss your big chance.

Let that be a lesson!

discover that there is a lot of responsibility involved. Each cast member not only sings, but does other things as well.

"SOME WORK IN Public Relations, some set up shows, some write for the paper, some work in management, and some help place members of the group in homes during concerts. We do things at 17 or 18 that most people don't have to do until they're 22 or older. It really makes you grow up fast.

"I've learned to live a quieter life than I used to. Oh, I still have fun, but we don't get to date or go out and paint the town or anything like that. We have fun in different ways. You have to learn to do things like that. It's part of the image. You have to live up to it. "Up With People" isn't for immature kids out for a good time. It's FOR industrious, concerned young adults who really want to do something about the world situation.

"A LOT OF BOYS would join, but they're afraid of the draft. As long as they're in school, they're safe; but as soon as they join "Up With People," they have to start holding their breath. We have a couple of boys right now who are just sweating it out. It takes a special kind of courage and feeling for a boy to join the show. They have a lot to lose.

"To join "Up With People," you need a special feel for people. You need to be concerned and you should share the feelings that our theme song projects," Maureen concluded. "If more people were for people, for people everywhere, there'd be a lot less people to worry about and a lot more people who care."

Senate Forms New Committee

The Senate has elected twelve members of the Student-Faculty Disciplinary Committee to help decide disciplinary rulings for students.

BASED ON A ROTATING order, three students will serve with three faculty members to hear disciplinary matters.

Those elected were: David Shepherd, May Cheek, Linda Green, Patsy Gadd, Nancy Dunagan, Barbara Demlon, Lin Dunn, Gary McMakin, Chuck Jones, Steve Neal, Tom Young, and Louis Smith.

THE SENATE ELECTED Susan Burrow and John Van Dyke to serve on the Curriculum and Instruction Committee.

"There are very few schools where this privilege is allowed," said Steve Davis, Student Government president. The purpose is to suggest changes on the campus for the improvement of curriculum studies.

PROBLEMS RELATING TO NOISES in the library and long lines in the bookstore during registration were discussed.

Camera Club To Meet

There will be a meeting of the Camera Club next Wednesday in Room 112 Administration at 8:00 p.m.

Club officers will be elected and policies set.

"A campus darkroom is being established, and this will be one of the topics at Wednesday's meeting," James Brown, year-book photographer, announced.

To be in "Who's Who" requires that you know what's what plus where, when, and why.

How pleasant is life when those of good will sit together to eat and give thanksgiving for the bounty of their work.

McCord Elects Officers

McCord Hall has elected officers.

They are: President, May Cheek; Vice President, Sandra Brown; Secretary-Treasurer, Pat Embry; Activities Chairman, Cindy Waddell; and Social Chairman, Mary Ann Szczepanik.

On Wednesday night, a party was given for the girls in the "Up With People" cast staying in McCord Hall.

Friday night McCord Hall sponsored a Pep Rally in front of the building, attempting to instill some enthusiasm and school spirit.

THE THOUGHT— Jerry McKelvy, Freshman coach and varsity scout, is the portrait of concern during Saturday's game with Jacksonville State.

THE ACTION— On a collision course are tailback Bubba Long (33) of Jacksonville State University linebacker Terry Butcher (55) and end Larry Krouse (60).

Vols Lose Second To Jax. State 16-12

By Mike Boehler

The Volunteers turned on the heat and put on a thrill-packed game against the Jacksonville State Gamecocks for home fans last weekend but were edged by a margin of 16-12.

UTM STARTED OFF with a bang by winning the toss and electing to receive. With 11:29 remaining in the first quarter, the Vols scored on a long drive from JSU's 41 yard line with a pass from Allan Cox to Steve Allison on the three yard line. The UTM defense kept JSU stunned and after a penalty was called against the Gamecocks, Larry Krouse recovered a fumble.

THE ORANGEMEN went on downfield and missed an attempt for a field goal. Again the Volunteer defense held a mighty hand against the Gamecocks and kept them from getting a first down. The Vols marched from their own thirty-three yard line and scored, making it a 12-0 lead for the Vols. Jacksonville was finally able to break through the strong Vol defense and scored with eight seconds remaining in the first half. The half-time score was UTM 12, JSU 7.

The Gamecocks were able to plant a field goal in the third quarter to make it 12 to 10. After the ball changed hands several times, the score remained the same at the end of the third quarter. UTM tried desperately to score but was unsuccessful while JSU tallied two more field goals making the score 16 to 12 in favor of the Gamecocks. The Orangemen held JSU's several attempts to score late in the fourth quarter. With fifty-six seconds left, UTM had the ball on their own eight yard line, but the pass was intercepted by JSU while the gun sounded.

UTM COMPLETED 16 of 28 passes for a total of 160 yards. JSU completed 8 of 23 passes for 136 passing yards. The Gamecocks got 172 yards on the ground while the Vols got 103 yards.

THE Volunteers have the weekend open and are resting up to meet the Delta State team for Homecoming.

The Student Government movie of the week will be "The Great Imposter."

Loeb Speaks Athletic Club Hosts Social

Memphis Mayor Henry Loeb will speak to the student body Wednesday, October 23, at 7:30 p.m. in the University Center Ballroom.

The Athletic Club, booster organization to support sports will hold a general meeting and social hour after the 2:00 p.m. homecoming clash with Delta State College, Saturday, October 26, in the Student Center.

DR. IRA PORTER of Greenfield, president, announced that sports fans attending the homecoming activities, who have an interest in joining the Athletic Club, will be especially welcomed at this meeting. Members receive a car decal for convenient parking at sports events, and football or basketball tickets may be purchased through the club. Dues are $15.00.

"We expect a large turnout for the homecoming meeting, since this event should bring just about all of our members to the campus," Dr. Porter said.

THE YOUNG CLUB, organized in September, now has 110 members in most West Tennessee counties. Frank Dodd is the chairman of the Martin chapter.
